Susie MacPherson

Beauty is a form of Genius-----is higher, indeed, than Genius, as it needs no explanation.

Oscar Wilde

The Picture of Dorian Gray

Every now and then a person, who is extraordinary in their field, comes along. Such is Susie MacPherson, ARNP, ANCC owner of Beauté Therapies Medical Spa, in West Palm Beach, Florida. She also practices in the greater Boston area and Nantucket, Massachusetts. Usually these talented people are devoted and totally enamored with their occupation and that is why they are so good at their chosen profession.

Susie is one of those people, who lives, eats and breathes anti-aging methods and procedures; her holistic approach combines the art of science of nonsurgical technology to maintain and/or restore and preserve natural beauty that is guaranteed to improve self-esteem. Susie is a master with injectables. She sculpts a face with her injectable technique that is youthful yet natural and all of her patients do not look done. There are no duck lips, puffy cheeks, and elevated eye brows pushing at the hairline, those you will see on the Housewives shows, especially on the Housewives of Beverly Hills. Lately, a couple of these women are looking like they are retaining water or on steroids, because of too much cheek injectables and the other's lips are so out of proportion it is apparent there has been work done. This is not necessary if the practioner knows what they are doing.

The "Mechanical & Liquid Lift", one of Susie's signature procedures that she has pioneered will have you coming out of her office looking ten years younger without the down time of surgery and going under the knife. Susie believes in "pain free medical beauty"; besides the customized, flawless, and long lasting results you will achieve just after one visit, her injectables are virtually painless due to her precision, cutting-edge technique, and finesse.

MacPherson didn't just wake up one morning and decide to open up Beauté Therapies. It has been a long, but exciting and rewarding process as she went to work as a surgical nurse in 1984 assisting Dr. Craft; a then noted Plastic Surgeon in West Palm Beach. All the time she worked with him, she was studying anti-aging methods. She first assisted many plastic and reconstructive surgeons in Palm Beach County and was one of three plastic surgical nurses first in the nation certified to perform cosmetic injections! Susie has also taught and trained her cosmetic enhancement procedures and techniques to physicians and colleagues alike both in the U.S. and abroad. She continues to educate herself in the latest and most advanced cutting edge anti-aging technologies internationally. Susie and her husband Cosmo, owner of Cosmo & Co., married in 2000. Susie helped raise Cosmo's two remarkable boys as they lost their mom to breast cancer in 1997. They have a family home in Italy, that she visits while she is studying abroad, bringing us back her wealth of knowledge and her exuberance.

When Susie is not working to make the world a better place, she is riding her horse Sprinkles, whom she has raised from a foal, trained her as a hunter jumper and in dressage. Sprinkles and Susie moved cattle, has done fox hunting, played polo and is one of Susie's best friends.

Susie has always been a dedicated humanitarian. She works with Harvest Hands Missions and Universal Aid for Children, Ukraine. She is one of those people who know that you must give back when you've been blessed! Susie helps to support medical needs to orphanages in Mexico and Ukraine. She has helped facilitate power lines to hospitals, purchases of much needed school supplies, and with housing for orphans in Mexico. Since 1995, Susie has participated in medical missions overseas and has been instrumental in the repair of Cleft Palate deformities of orphan children in the region of Odessa, Ukraine. She presently sponsors The Scholarship Program, Ukraine to help older orphans seek higher education. In addition to their two amazing children, Cosmo and Susie have 6 Ukrainian Children whom they continue to mentor and support. They sponsor a new child from the program every year.

Susie is passionate about helping people to look and feel better..... She strives to educate her patients in anti-aging and preventative therapies to enhance their total wellbeing..... ▲

TREASURE HUNT!

Classic Collections, the premier luxury consignment boutique in Palm Beach, features a simply stunning selection of nearly new--or oftentimes--brand new high-end, couture designer merchandise for women. Offering the most fabulous top brand names for much less than retail prices, one can peruse classic items such as Chanel and Hermes handbags, Armani, Escada, Valentino and Akris suits, Ferragamo, Missoni, Hermes and Chanel scarves, Jimmy Choo, Christian Louboutin, Manolo Blahnik and other high-fashion shoes, dresses by Cavalli, Versace, Yves Saint Laurent, Zach Posen, Moschino, and Prada and elegant gowns by world-famous icons such as Vera Wang, Givenchy, Badgley Mishka, Oscar de la Renta, Carmen Marc Valvo, Valentino and Gucci among others. Since this elegant boutique caters to discerning women of all ages and style, it's interesting to note that the image of the high-end resale and consignment industry is changing. In fact, according to NARTS, the world's largest resale trade association (of which Classic Collections is a member), "in recent years of economic flux...resale has attracted even more consumers. A new breed of shopper has discovered resale and is taking advantage of the values found in purchasing and consigning or selling gently-used items." During the winter season, Classic Collections offers a fantastic selection of new furs that are selected and designed by Skaneateles Furs. Featuring coats, jackets, shawls, evening wraps, vests, collars and other fun fur pieces, the quality and unique designs of the mink, sable, lynx, cashmere, fox, beaver, chinchilla are anxiously awaited by customers each year.

And the jewelry! Classic Collections promotes and supports a number of local Florida artists who craft their exceptional pieces with semi-precious gems, as well as stocking widely-sought vintage jewelry from such designers as Chanel, Hermes, Kenneth Jay Lane, Gucci, and others. Recently, Classic Collections has added a small selection of gold and "fine daytime" jewelry from their most discerning consignors. (Pic of Chanel Brooch)

Indeed, Sally Kimball, owner of Classic Collections, states that "we are exceptionally fortunate that our consignors (mostly from wealthy areas of the U.S.) are predominately women of style and substance who have always adhered to iconic and classic styles and demand exceptional quality and top-notch fashion for their closets. The fabulous fabrics, timeless styles, perfectly tailored, detail oriented treasures they bring to Classic Collections appeal to sophisticated and savvy shoppers who want to purchase chic, marvelous and the very best of designer brands for so much less". Classic Collections is a MUST for those customers who want to marry accessibility and incredible value with merchandise of superior quality, selection and style. ❁
